whole frozen RAW HPP Lobster

Harvested from the cold, pristine waters of St. Mary's Bay, Nova Scotia, Riverside's lobster is well known for its black, hard shell and fully seated characteristics.

With more than 20 years experience in the airfreight business, we take great pride in shipping a premium product to our customers year-round and world-wide.

We use hydrostatic pressure processing (HPP) to keep our lobster meat tender, juicy and full of natural flavours. We always strive to deliver quality lobster at competitive prices—we guarantee it!

"Our grade A, whole raw HPP lobster is quick frozen to provide a quality product that is comparable only to live lobster!"

—David Deveau, President Riverside Lobster

Lobster has been our prime focus for over 20 years.

Our experience guarantees you receive the best from the sea!
